

ENTERTAINMENT THROUGHOUT THE TT FESTIVAL

Ulster's TT Heroes

House of Manannan, Peel

Open daily 10.00 – 17.00hrs

An exhibition celebrating the achievements of riders who grew up in the Northern Irish road racing scene, many of whom went on to obtain podium positions in the world famous TT races on the Isle of Man.

Central to the exhibition is a retrospective look at the Dunlop family. Two of Joey's bikes and his iconic 1988 yellow Arai helmet will be on display together with memorabilia highlighting the successful careers of the other family members. Other riders featured include 1980's luminaries Norman Brown and Brian Reid; Brown famously finished on the podium in every race he completed on the Isle of Man. The exhibition is in association with Ballymoney Museum. Free donations welcome.

Susan Cooper (Melissa McCarthy) is an unassuming, deskbound CIA analyst, and unsung hero behind the agency's most dangerous missions. But when her partner (Jude Law) falls off the grid and another top agent (Jason Statham) is compromised, she volunteers to go deep undercover to infiltrate the world of a deadly arms dealer and prevent a global disaster. Non-stop action comedy.

Late Night screenings of ROAD

Motorcycle road racing is the most dangerous of all motor sports. Ireland and the Isle of Man are two of the few places in the world where the sport still survives. Narrated by Liam Neeson, this is the dramatic and poignant story of two sets of brothers from Northern Ireland who have dominated road racing for over thirty years. Two generations of one family that have been united by success and united by tragedy.

Visit: www.villagaiety.com for details and to buy tickets or visit the Welcome Centre at the Sea Terminal or Villa Marina on the Promenade.
