Stanley Woods 1939 TT Winning Velocette

Manx Museum, Douglas

For the duration of the TT.

The 350cc Velocette motorcycle, ridden to victory by Stanley Woods in the 1939 Junior TT, is now on display at Manx Museum in Douglas. The Irish motorcycle racer Woods was one of the biggest stars of the TT in the interwar years as he was the first rider to reach 10 TT wins. Woods' win at the politically charged 1939 TT was hugely significant, as it was the only one for British machinery that year and with his win he showed that British machinery could still triumph.
